WARSAW STREETS TO BE PAVED -- Trybuna Ludu, No 217, 9 Aug 49

Fifteen streets in Warsaw are to be repaved. Ossi Street will have asphalt paving; Jakikowska Street will have cobblestone paving. In addition to 15,000 square meters already laid, 10,000 square meters of large-block paving will be laid before the end of the year. The plan also calls for laying of 30,000 cubic meters of small-block paving (18,000 completed thus far). This year 75,000 square meters of cobblestone paving and 78,000 square meters of sidewalks have been laid.

WARSAW STREET REBUILT, ENLARGED -- Zycie Warszawy, No 218, 10 Aug 49

Krucza Street will be opened to traffic 15 October. Its width will vary, ranging from 17 to 43 meters. The new Ministry of Trade building will be at the widest section and will have a large parking area.

DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN WORKERS -- Zycie Warszawy, No 217, 9 Aug 49

A special committee was formed to counteract discrimination against women workers in the building industry. Representatives of the Ministry of Labor and of the Central Committee of Trade Unions will sit on the Committee. Every occupation accessible to women will be listed. Many trades were previously considered "dangerous" to prevent women from competing with men.
